Take Heart— Draft Quota May Diminish

Falling draft quotas due to increased enlistments may offer new hope for induction-fearing college students.

February enlistments totaling 20,900 have been followed by a corresponding April draft quota of 21,700 men, the lowest since last September.

The largest quota since the Korean War was reached in December when 42,200 men received induction notices.

STUDENT DEFERMENTS

Students classified II-S will probably not be called up in the near future, according to Mrs. A. M. Cramer, coordinator of the San Jose local draft board group.

However, students will still have to take the classification tests which are scheduled for Saturday, May 14 and 21, and Friday, June 10. Application materials for the tests will probably be sent to college registrars about April 1, Mrs. Cramer said Thursday. Students must apply to take the tests.

TEST ELIGIBILITY

Students now classified I-A who are taking 12 units or more will be eligible to take the tests. Those who do well may have their classification reconsidered, Mrs. Cramer said.

Recently sampled student opinion is evenly divided on the value of the tests in determining a student's right to remain in college.

One reason for the rise in enlistments might be that many draft-age men would rather enlist for three years and get some choice of duty than be drafted and put at the mercy of the Army's placement system.

GI BILL

Another reason could be a section in the new GI Bill of Rights which provides a month of educational benefits for each month of active duty served.

A draftee would receive two and a half years of college at government expense while a three-year enlistee could attend a full four years.

A third possible reason for enlistment increases might be due to the large number of students who graduated from high school or college in January and desire to perform their military obligation now.

The Pentagon is shooting for a goal of 3,093,000 men in uniform, an authorized increase of 453,000 due to the Viet Nam war.

FACES OF EMOTION in Friday's Seventh Street Forum included Dr. David Newman, SJS faculty member, (top left) who related the two planned topics. Emmitt Wallace, controversial student poet, read his new poem which swung the forum to criticism of U.S. foreign policy. Harry Farrell, San Jose Mercury-News political writer, listens as he is verbally attacked for his editorial opinions. He declined an invitation to take the microphone and defend himself. At bottom are a book and students at the forum. Right is Terry Hallinan, DuBois Club national secretary. An estimated 300 students attended the forum.

Tomorrow, Wednesday

Orchestra To Perform

Dr. Gibson Walters, chairman of the Music Department and professor of music, will conduct the SJS Symphony Orchestra in its annual spring concert tomorrow and Wednesday nights, at 8:15 in Concert Hall.

The 60-member orchestra includes students majoring in music, elementary education, math, medical technology, nursing, philosophy, fine arts and English. Each May the Music Department opens auditions to all SJS students who wish to solo with the orchestra.

Senior music majors Dae Baird and Miss Soon Hwang Chun will solo at the concerts. Baird, pianist, will join the orchestra in its presentation of Brahms' Concerto No. 1 in D Minor for Piano and Orchestra, Op. 15. He has soloed with the Monterey County Symphony and presented several recitals in the Salinas area.

Miss Soon, soprano, a foreign student from Korea, came to the United States in 1962. She will sing the aria, "Un bel di," from the Puccini opera, "Madame Butterfly."

Also on the concert program are Mendelssohn's overture, "The Hebrides," Op. 26; Schubert's Symphony No. 8 in B Minor, D 759, and Offenbach's "Elle a fui, la tourterelle" from "Les Contes d'Hoffmann."

Speaking of the symphony, Dr. Walters commented, "The artistic and musical results that are evident in our concert performances are due to a cooperative, enthusiastic and dedicated membership in the orchestra."

Student Fined $100 For License Violation

SJS student John Hansen, 188 S. 14th St., literary editor of the New Student, was fined $100 in Municipal Court last Monday for selling beer and liquor without a license to raise funds for the publication.

He was also assessed $10 in court fees.

Municipal Court Judge Paul T. Gallagher handed down the sentence.

Hansen, 24, was one of two persons arrested about three weeks ago when police and men from the Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission raided a fund-raising party for the New Student.

Also arrested was Joe Brooks, 731 S. Third St., who was charged with putting on a dance without a city permit. He is scheduled to appear in court today.

Freshman Camp Needs Counselors; Forms Available

Anyone who is enthusiastic, flexible, intelligent, outgoing, active on campus should apply for Freshman Camp counselor, according to Terry Schutten, camp director. Applications for counselor are available in the College Union, and interviews will be held today through Friday.

Freshman Camp, Friday, Sept. 9, Asilomar, Sept. 11, will be held at Asilomar on the Monterey Peninsula. SJS sets the trend for orientation camps throughout the country, Schutten stated. He reported that the State Teachers College Journal has written it up as an outstanding freshman camp.

Camp counselors lead discussion groups, recreational activities and social events, Schutten related.

"Being a counselor is a worthwhile activity," Schutten stressed, "since the camp helps develop friendship between incoming freshmen and the student body. It is also a lot of fun. I'd like to see everyone try out for counselor."

A recent wallet or souvenir-size photo must accompany each application.

U.S. Policies Criticized By Forum Speakers

By DON SEVRENS
Spartan Daily Staff Writer

What originally was planned as a Seventh Street Forum protesting Russian punishment of three writers and United States legal action against the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs Friday soon evolved into a general protest against United States foreign policy.

An estimated 300 students gathered on Seventh Street Friday to hear speakers at the forum which started at 12:15 p.m. and lasted for more than three hours.

Among persons who climbed a wooden platform and took the microphone were: Terry Hallinan, DuBois Clubs national secretary; Dr. David K. Newman, associate professor of psychology; Dr. Marion K. Richards, associate professor of English, and Emmitt Wallace, senior psychology major.

HALLINAN EXPLAINS

Hallinan began the forum by explaining to students why he thinks the Justice Department moved to require the W.E.B. DuBois Clubs to register as a Communist-front organization.

He charged the Justice Department is trying to scare away potential club members, kill the club, and isolate the DuBois Clubs from the "peace movement."

Hallinan read a long list of individuals and groups which, he asserted, officially have backed the DuBois Clubs since the Justice Department move. He included on the list the Communist Party, the Socialist Party, Southern Leadership Conference, and Students for a Democratic Society.

As the crowd formed, several students passed out handbills requesting its support for the International Days of Protest Friday and Saturday.

The second speaker, Dr. Newman, attempted to link the DuBois Clubs event and the Russian censure by stating that, in both cases, governments acted on matters they had no right to.

POEM READ

In referring to the DuBois Clubs, he said: "They may or may not be a Communist-front organization in this, as far as I'm concerned. The government doesn't have the right to require individuals to register."

Student poet Emmitt Wallace read his new poem, "Let Yourself Go, America," which criticized many aspects of American society.

Wallace led the forum away from the DuBois and Russian topics, and it never returned.

Dr. Marion K. Richards, the next speaker, attacked attitudes students and various persons hold toward different forms of art.

CROWD DWINDLES

Then, at 1:25 p.m., the microphone was free for use by students in the audience. The crowd, which once numbered an estimated 300 to 400 students, now dwindled to about 150.

Among other persons who spoke were: Ira Meltzer, student activist, who briefed students on events for the International Days of Protest by reading verbatim a Spartan Daily news article, and Jim Shaw, former Seventh Street regular contributor, who said, "My primary purpose here today is to denounce the U.S. government regarding its foreign policy."

Tickets On Sale For 'SJS Night' At Circle Star

Tickets go on sale today at the Student Affairs Business Office, Building R, for "SJS Night" with the Smothers Brothers at Circle Star Theatre, San Carlos, Tuesday, April 12.

Rich Hernandez, former program director of KSJS and coordinator of "SJS Night," announced that KSJS will present a commendation to the Smothers Brothers for "outstanding achievement in the field of entertainment." The Smothers Brothers, Tom and Dick, are former SJS students.

Prices for the performances are $2, $3, $4 and $5.

DuBois Director Blames Katzenbach for Bombing

Terry Hallinan, national secretary of the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs, told a Seventh Street crowd Friday that he holds U.S. Attorney General Nicolas Katzenbach responsible for the bombing of the DuBois Club headquarters in San Francisco.

Although he stated that he knows Katzenbach was not involved in the actual bombing, Hallinan insisted that the attorney general "knew what the results would be" when he moved to have the DuBois Clubs registered as Communist front organizations. "We're going to teach him a lesson. We're going to be the organization that gets the McCarran Act thrown off the books," exclaimed Hallinan. The act requires Communists and Communist groups to register with the federal government as agents of a foreign power.

After the speech Hallinan revealed his plans to travel to New Mexico, Salt Lake City and Oregon in support of the DuBois Clubs. "Since the Katzenbach statement the whole organization has been on the move drumming up support, and response has been tremendous," he added.

Hallinan revealed in his talk that since the Justice Department's statement two weeks ago, the DuBois Club membership has almost doubled. "They tried to isolate us from the rest of the left, but instead they've thrust us into the leadership of the movement."

It was Hallinan's contention that government actions such as attempts to get an organization to register as a Communist front were "threats to everyone. The positions we were cited for holding are very similar to those of the CDC (California Democratic Council) and the ADA (Americans for Democratic Action.)"

"The government wants to crackdown on the peace movement, the civil rights movement and all discontent groups," Hallinan said.

Graduate Student Presents Proposals to ASB Council

Graduate student Phil Whitten, president of Students for a Democratic Society, made two proposals to the Student Council during last week's meeting.

Whitten called for student participation in curriculum planning by the Academic Council and improvement in relations between SJS and the San Jose community. "I propose that we investigate the possibility of action on student participation. Students are directly elected to Academic Council at San Francisco State," Whitten stated.

"This negates the contention that there is no student interest in these matters. Precedents have also been established at Pomona College, Yale, Antioch and many others," he continued.

"The chairman of the Academic Council had indicated to me that he is favorably disposed to this kind of reform, as have many other council members," Whitten revealed.

Whitten also suggested action be taken to make the college community more autonomous "in the tradition of but not to the degree of European and Latin American universities."

Whitten, who has presented these suggestions to the Student Council at previous meetings and received no response, suggested that the council seriously think about his proposals this time.

FRESHMAN CAMP COUNSELORS lead an orientation group at last year's camp at Asilomar on the Monterey Peninsula. Interviews for this year's camp, Sept. 9-11, will be held today through Friday. Applications for counselor are available at the College Union. Counselors lead discussion groups, recreational activities and social events.

We Believe

Chariot of Peace

Thomas Jefferson said, "War is an instrument entirely inefficient toward redressing wrong; and multiplies, instead of indemnifying, losses."

During the next week, students at SJS will be subjected to the philosophy of war as seen through the views of the politically right and left.

Some will say war is great when it defends the principles set down by this nation. Others will say war is wrong because it is inhumane and evil. How can war be justified in the eyes of any person?

At present, the great debate centers on involvement of the United States in Viet Nam.

It is asserted that if one opposes involvement, he is something less than a patriot—a concept perpetrated by persons seeking a justification for the great move to bring peace to the world.

War in any form cannot be justified and the war in Viet Nam cannot be justified. The platitudes uttered in defense of involvement fail to reach the pinnacle needed to justify reasonably the deaths of men.

Too many words have been spilled over the falls of peace in defense of a course of action that is so diabolically opposed to the meaning and concepts of peace.

Perhaps the great English statesman Lloyd George said it best when he uttered, "You are not going to get peace with millions of armed men. The chariot of peace cannot advance over a road littered with cannons."

'Veterans Benefit Society'

The demands on today's students are ever increasing. Students must compete with the progress of the most intricate and complex society the planet has ever seen. If the City College classes are any indication, competition among students is rough. Just as competition in the world of scratching for a living is fierce, so is scholastic competition a serious and rugged business.

EDUCATION
In the next year, 251,000 veterans will be receiving education and training allowances in any given month. These men will be playing for keeps.

Most of them will be older men, that is, older than the average student; many will be in their late 20's, some in their 30's. They have tasted the drudgery of the work-a-day world. They know what screaming kids are. They have more bills than any other group in the country.

They have spent half of their waking day chained to great machines, in gray factories; they have bent over dull papers in dull offices.

HURRY

But these men don't want to be dull people. Ask one of them what he wishes for, and besides the down payment for a house, he answers, "an education." He's starting late, so he won't have a minute to waste. He'll be in one helluva hurry.

Many teachers will testify to the fact that older students are more serious than younger students. And why not? They've already been 18, 19 and 20, and their interests have shifted to survival and other serious subjects.

HARD LIVING

These men have competed on the battleground of hard living, and for many of them, education will be a snap.

Thank the Lord, Congress and President Johnson that these veterans "in times of need" have been recognized and been given their rightful share of the Great Society's benefits. Give them an education and they will benefit the Great Society.

Oral Debate Set

Editor:

Although I have not come to agreement with Jebba Abbeyquay on the question of whether or not a timeless principle changes in time, I do agree that carrying on a debate in person would be much more constructive than further letters to Thrust and Parry.

I have discussed this matter with Asman Khan, president of the International Students Organization, and a tentative date and place for such a debate has been arranged. It will be April 15 at 3:30 p.m. in Cafeteria A and B.

President Khan told me he would like to have two persons on each side of the debate and I would like to invite A. P. Anderson, author of the excellent letter in Thrust and Parry March 18 on Rhodesia, to participate on my side if he feels so inclined.

'Shorty Waves'

Year of 'Fiery Horse'
Challenges Initiative

By SHARON OSAKI

One challenge that has kept female minds churning feverishly throughout the years is how to attract and corral a mass of proto plasm called "the male."

If one is to believe an ancient Oriental superstition, this challenge will be even greater for all the little misses born this year.

According to the zodiacal cycle originated by the Chinese, this is the "year of the fiery horse" which occurs once every 60 years.

CYCLE

The cycle consists of 12 years — years of the mouse, cow, tiger, rabbit, dragon, snake, horse, goat, monkey, bird, dog and boar.

Individuals are said to possess certain characteristics of the animals which represent the year of his birth.

Girls born in the year of the horse, occurring every 12 years, are supposedly cheerful, headstrong and independent.

However, when the element of fire, part of a separate five-year cycle and traditionally associated with earthquake and thunder, coincides with the year of the horse, it supposedly produces strong-willed girls possessed with so violent a nature as to drive their husbands to death.

Historical records and folk tales attest to men's unwilling-ness to marry "hinocuma" (fire horse) women.

Most Orientals today have dismissed the superstition as pure myth, but the lingering effects of the belief are still apparent.

Japanese officials predict a decline of 20 per cent in that country's birth rate this year.

They also attribute last year's birth rate, highest since 1953, to the desire of married couples to have their children born before the year of the fiery horse.

HINOEUUMA

I'll have a chance to see if this superstition has any validity since I became auntie to a little "hinocuma" baby last month.

At the moment, as little Ann contentedly coos in her crib, I don't see any signs of a fiery horse woman — except possibly when she lets loose her mighty hunger calls.

Call it female togetherness, but I'm betting that my niece and other girls born this year will toss that old fiery horse woman superstition right out the window!

Spartan Trackmen Rip Cal; Smith Takes Three Firsts

By PAUL SAVOIA
Spartan Daily Sports Editor

BERKELEY—Tommy Smith and SJS made a few more believers in the track world Saturday by dominating a triangular at Edwards Stadium here.

The Spartans had no trouble in annexing the title with 78 points, followed by host California at 62½ and Nevada at 40½. In dual meet scores, the Spartans of Bud Winter whipped the Bears for the ninth straight time, 85-60, and clobbered Nevada 93-52.

While Smith was winning three individual events and anchoring a winning relay squad, his Spartan teammates were gathering unexpected points to pile up an early lead.

Many pre-meet dope sheets had the dual meet score with Bears going until the final race, the mile relay, before a winner would be found.

RELAY ANTICLIMACTIC
As it was, the mile relay was anticlimactic, with the Bears, minus star Forrest Beatty, winning their 27th consecutive outdoor race in the event, beating an SJS team with only one member of the squad that was previously unbeaten.

The first three races set the stage for the meet.
In the 440 relay, little Wayne

Hermen burst out of the blocks with his usual speed to give the Spartans an early lead that was held by Tim Knowles and John Bambury and increased by Smith.

Smith ran his leg against Beatty in the first meeting of the two heralded cindermen. The Spartan relay time of 40.6 equals the best time in the nation this year, set by SJS last week.

In the mile run, where Cal was expected to win with Bob Price—the eventual winner of the two mile — SJS veteran Joe Neff came through with an upset victory with a meet record time of 4:08.2.

Next was the feature open 440 with Smith meeting head-to-head with Beatty. The Cal ace, second in the NCAA meet in this event last year, grabbed a slim lead in the first 300 yards, but Tommy shifted into high gear, passed Beatty in the stretch and won by seven yards going away.

He was clocked in a meet record time of 46.7.

TENDONITIS COMPLAINT
Beatty did not run the rest of the day—spoiling a return match with

In the 220, Hermen appeared to have a loafing Smith beaten until Wayne slowed down, looking around and laughing, to let Smith win in the final 10 yards. Their identical times were 21.6. Hermen earlier had easily won the 100 in a best-of-season 9.6.

Smith took two jumps in the broad jump and recorded a 23-9¼ for first place, while Craig Fergus of SJS set a meet record in winning the triple jump at 49-3¾ and teammate Paul Hewitt did a best-of-life 206-3 to win the javelin.

Another surprising Spartan effort was turned in by Ken Noel, who not only prevented the possibility of a California sweep in the 880, but won the event with a 1:53.3 clocking, holding off a late surge by Cal soph Devone Smith, who recorded the same time.

Spartan Ken Shackelford tripped on the last hurdle and was nipped at the tape by Cal's Paddy McCrary in the 440 intermediate hurdles. Shackelford's 53.0 was one-tenth of a second off McCrary's time.

Swimmers Take 2nd in Nationals; Currin Nabs Breaststroke Title

Spartan swimmers finished second at the college division of the NCAA championships in Normal, Ill., Saturday night.

San Diego led all the way while garnering 243 points. SJS followed with 213 and the University of California at Santa Barbara took third with 178.

Although somewhat disappointed with the runnerup honors, coach Tom O'Neill feels the team made a good showing. "All the boys that made the trip won All-American honors either as individuals or as part of a relay."

Kevin Currin was the lone fin-ner to take a gold medal. He turned in a meet record timing of 1:03.6 in the 100 breaststroke Friday.

The 400 medley relay squad notched a first Thursday with a 3:43.8 timing. Members of the unit were Mike Hansen, Currin, Ted Mathewson and John Kocal.

Intramural Announcements

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENTS

Theta Chi will play the winner of Friday afternoon's Sigma Alpha Epsilon-Sigma Nu game tonight to determine the second spot in the championship game.

Alpha Tau Omega earned one spot in the final contest Thursday night by upending Theta Chi 43-32 behind Jim Pryor's 14 points.

In fraternity loser's bracket play, Sigma Nu defeated Delta Sigma Phi 53-46 behind Jerry Gaustad's 14 points, while Sigma Alpha Epsilon was awarded a forfeit win over Omega Psi Phi.

The Awful-Awfuls will take on SACE and Basketball Inc. will meet To Whom It May Concern tonight in semi-final winner's bracket play of the independent upper division basketball tournament.

In upper division games Thursday night, the Awful-Awfuls beat the Red Horde 59-33, To Whom It May Concern stopped the Razorbacks 51-34 and SACES upended Phi Mu Chi 58-44.

In the lower division tournament tonight, the Hawks play the Misfits, Sigma Alpha Epsilon No. 2 battles Markham Hall, the Peace Mongers meet Allen Hall and Bending Moments tests the Swishers.

In lower division tournament games Thursday, Bending Moments edged the Tip-Ins 47-46, while Dick Flodin's basket with four seconds left in the game gave Allen Hall No. 2 a 47-45 victory over the Mets. An intra-fraternity battle saw Sigma Alpha Epsilon No. 2 trounce Sigma Alpha Epsilon No. 3 47-13 and the Misfits beat the Blue Horde 53-34.

USF Golf Squad Tests SJS Today

Another unknown quantity invades the San Jose Country Club golf course today to test Spartan linksters.

The University of San Francisco visits SJS this afternoon at 1 p.m. looking to upset the strong Spartan six.

Coach Jerry Vroom rates the Dons as another team with unknown players. The mentor expects his contingent will take the win, especially if Don Keffer continues his sub-par play.

With four consecutive rounds of par or below golf, Keffer sparked the linksters to a pair of victories over Cal last week.

Firing a four-under-par 66 last, the thin golfer has emerged as the early team leader. Vroom credits the "human one iron's" success to his hot putter.

Other Spartans testing the San Francisco crew are Terry Small, Ross Randall, Jim Troncatty, Chris Andrews and a sixth man. Vroom expects to test either Dennis McDonough, Cam Pickett or Ken Slasor for the remaining slot.

The race to the moon seems a bit tame to Edison engineers.

Don't misunderstand. It isn't that our engineers aren't interested. Nobody could be more intrigued. But they have quite a race on their hands, too.

Edison is racing Southern California. In the next 10 years, we'll serve an estimated 2½ million more people. The race to keep pace, electrically, demands creative engineering of the highest order. Edison is building a nuclear generating plant at San Onofre, California. In fact, our staff is already making plans 20 years ahead. Under study: thermionics, thermoelectrics, magnetohydrodynamics, and other methods of direct conversion that show promise for tomorrow's power systems.

Sound exciting enough for you?

If you're a candidate for a bachelor's or advanced degree in electrical engineering, mechanical engineering, industrial engineering, civil engineering or chemistry, you may be our man.

Hoover's Easter Seal Drive Continues for Rest of Week

It will be easy days for male dorm residents tomorrow, as women from Hoover Hall's second west wing make beds to raise money for Easter Seals, in conjunction with this year's Honey Bunny contest. Bed making will take place in Allen, Markham and Moulder Halls between 4 and 5 p.m. and also between 6 and 7 p.m. For the service the ladies will be collecting a 25 cent donation.

A slave sale, one highlight of Hoover's annual 11-day event, will be held in their Recreation Room, Wednesday, beginning at 6 p.m.

"The slaves are sold as a service to the men students," said Barbara Patchen, contest representative.

In the past the girls have been sold for between $2 and $9 she said.

Two of the most popular bands in the Santa Clara Valley, the "Syndicate of Sound" and the "Trolls," will headline Thursday's March 24, Honey Bunny talent show. The show begins at 8 p.m. in Morris Dailey Auditorium.

More musical entertainment will pour out of the Civic Auditorium Friday from 7:30 p.m. to midnight.

Eight bands, the "Lil Boys Blue," "The Jaguars," the "Soul Seekers," "The Zu," the London Raiders," the "Other Side," the "Gov-nors" and the "Five Pence," are on the bill.

A car wash will complete the Easter Seal fund raising drive activities for Hoover Hall, Saturday.

Up until midnight Saturday women of the various wings will be selling food, in both Hoover and other student residences.

The announcement of the wing which has raised the most money and "Honey Bunny 1966" will come Sunday at a dorm Easter egg hunt.

Deadline Set For Entries In Bazaar

Clubs or organizations planning to enter food booths in the International Bazaar planned for Friday, April 29, on Seventh Street, should begin plans now, according to Miss Barbara Dunn, bazaar chairman.

Deadline to enter food booths is Friday, April 1. Display booth deadline is Thursday, April 14. An entry fee of $3 is charged for food booths.

"We're hoping for a great deal of participation from all of the on-campus ethnic groups at the bazaar," stated Miss Dunn. "The event is the biggest part of International Week which takes place on campus."

A compulsory meeting of food booth chairmen will take place on April 13, with tentative menus and other booth plans to be presented.

Groups wishing to participate may do so by contacting Mrs. Dolores Habura in ADM201 or by telephoning Miss Dunn at 295-3762. A list of compulsory health regulations is available to all entrants.

'Lucky Jim' Set As Classic Film

Wednesday's Classic Film, "Lucky Jim," will be shown at 3:30 and 7 p.m. in JC55.

The film, free to the college community, tells the story of the unlucky exploits of an assistant professor of history on a sedate "cultural" weekend at the home of his superior.
